To all the folks who have helped me make Vox Populi Methods of Manipulation such a great success thank you.

I am happy to announce that the film will be screened at Chashama Film Festival in NYC in November. I am also very pleased to announce also that Chashama is a free film festival, so anyone wanting to attend is most welcome.

I will be doing my best to be in attendance and I hope to see you all there.

Best Wishes
